

SCAM ... HOME ENERGY AUDIT ... SCAM

The Lewes BPW has been notified of Home Energy Audit “Scams” that have happened in the State of Maryland. Although this has not occurred in the City of Lewes, nevertheless, we find it important to notify our customers should this happen to you.

While Home Energy Audits provide useful tips on how to save and conserve energy, some may pose as a scam. You may want to take necessary precautions to be sure that your Audit is legitimate. Ask to see a copy of the business license, insurance and photo identification.

It is important to note ... no business or person(s) other than the Lewes BPW is allowed access to the electric meters. They are sole property of the Lewes BPW. Should said business or person(s) state that they have our permission, you will know it is a scam.
