

Lewes BPW Power

We have been experiencing accumulation of salt from the ocean air on the insulators and transformers that may cause a crackling noise from the pole top. Please do not be alarmed as no power will be affected. The situation will remedy itself once it rains.